

The Episcopal Church of All Saints and Ascension recognizes
Alexia r. dukes

Alexia R. Dukes is a 2018 graduate of McCluer Senior High School. Throughout her high school career she has received various awards: Comet of Character, 2015-2018; Honor Roll, 2014-2018; and Academic Award, 2015-2018.

Alexia was a member of the Student Government, Deca Club, Yearbook Staff, and the National Honor Society.

Her extra-curricular activities included being President of the St. Louis County Youth NAACP, and Vice President of Sigma Gamma Rho Rhoer Club. Alexia has also served as an Acolyte and an usher at our parish.

Alexia will be attending Harris-Stowe State University in the fall, majoring in Psychology. She is the daughter of Allen and Deborah Dukes.

Congratulations, Alexia! We wish you the best as you move to the next chapter of your life.

Every yesterday is
A memory of dreams.
Every tomorrow is a vision of hope.

(Over)

The Episcopal Church of All Saints and Ascension recognizes
CAMRYN MOORE

Camryn Moore, daughter of Ebony Crittenden and Christopher Moore, and granddaughter of Joyce Crittenden, is an eighth grade honor student at Christ The King Catholic School.

While in the eighth grade, Camryn participated in The Equations Club, The Science Bowl, The Duke University Talent Identification Program, and The Math Competition held at St. Louis University High School. Camryn played basketball, soccer, volleyball, and ran track. She also plays the violin, guitar, and piano.

Camryn will enter ninth grade at Incarnate Word Academy in the fall.

The Episcopal Church of All Saints and Ascension sends blessings to you as you enter high school in the fall.

(Over)